Too LATE .-- We regret exceedingly that our Columbia correspondence ar-Fived too late for this issue, as it contains many items of value and importance. We hope our correspondent will mail his articles sooner hereafter, for we are anxious to give the public every one of his racy articles.

The following appointments, made at the Conference of the M. E. Church South, for the coming year, will be of inlerest to our readers :

Branchv. Ilo-D. J. Simmons. Orangeburg-F. Auld. Eastern Orange-W. Carson. Providence -J. C. Stoll, E. J Pennig ton, Supernumerary.

St. Matteres-J. W Crider. Tpper St. Matthews-J. E. Watson. I pper Orange-J. S. Bensly. The Rev. F. M. Kennedy is Presiding Elder of this (Bamburg) Circuit.

THE GAUNTLET TAKEN UP .- We said that "our friend, H. Easterling over in the Fork," had gathered from one acre of ground, two thousand and five hundred pounds seed cotton." We believed, and so expressed ourselves that there could not be another instance of the kind in the County. But we were mistaken. Glad of it. Our friend J. W. H. Dukes, the never-tiring and energetic farmer that he is, assure un that from one-eighth of an acre, he gathared 436 pounds, at which rate an acre would produce 3,480 pounds making three decent bales of cotton.

Verily this places Orangeburg, in the way of cotton planting, foremost in the State.

Do so again, Mr. Dukes. You can find no rival. The palm is yours.

Hon. J. R. Graham was elected Judge of the First Circuit, on last week. He is a gentleman of an exceedingly pleasing sidirese, and we predict. will give satisfaction to all our people.

CARRIAGE Snop .- Doyle, Wiles & Co., have bought out Mr. Thomas Ray's establishment. Carriage making, in all its most approved and latest styles, is now carried on by these gentlemen. They are well fixed for the business now, but we are assured that they will not stop adding on to their Factory, until it skall compare favorably with any establighment in the interior of the State. This argues well for the enterprise exhibised, and the progress that is being made in Orangeburg County. Messys. Doyle, Wiles & Co., have already made a tremendous outlay; and it was made with an eye solely to the accommodation of the people of our County. Shall they go unrewarded? Shall energy, like theirs, meet with no encouragement! In short, shall one week pass by, before such an appreciation of their enterprise is shown, in the way of orders for buggies &c., that will suggest greater improvements to them?

We opine not. Prepare for it, gentle-

The Legislature will adjourn on Thursday next for the holidays.

As we go to press, beautiful snowflakes are falling. How portentous and softly sad, are the clouds; and yet, how cold and bitter is what they yesterday sent forth, to the houseless few !

When we were boys, in the hey day of youth, we loved such ; but the stern realities of life have taught us to love sunshine better.

Goods bought for nothing-Shawls. for the mere taking-Gloves, to keep the hands warm, for the low price of one dollar a pair. And, indeed, every thing in the Fancy Dry Goods line that ones imagination can conceive of, is to be had at the elegant store of Kohn & Bro's. Their advertisement is a treat. Read

An organ grinder was in town yesterday. The man worked the instrument and the monkey took the money. This has the seeming of a paradox, when taking in connection with the general cupidity of the human race. Usually gien do not desire to share even with their fellow-men, in all the transactions of life; but here was one that did the work, and a monkey collected the money January next or payment will be debarred.

The Daily Republican is strenuously advocating a minority Representation. Now we are willing to hear, and have heard, numurmeringly many of our contemporary's new-fangled notions, but we find it impossible to maintain our usual equanimity on this particular one.

Has the Republican carefully considered all the evils which, of a necessity must follow the adoption of a minority Representation in South Carolina? If so, we are at a loss to account for its present attitude.

Oun friend, W. T. Muller, has returned from Charleston. The freshest lager, the choicest wines, the best whiskeys, the finest groceries, consisting of every article known to that department, is the result of his return. Housekeepers, read what he announces in another column. Don't you want a piece of Fulton Market beef? If so, go to Mullers. And, ye thirsty souls-but pshaw ! you know what we mean, without calling it right out. Don't you?

CHRISTMAS IS COMING -The day on which every young man should make present to his sweetheart, is near at hand. Above all things, remember, this. Your dulcines will torget you, will put on a long face, if you forget to remember her, with something tasty on Christmas day To your friend, you should present some token, some little remembrancer of yourself and heart. Are you thinking of it? For a small amount, you might engrave your name upon the tablet of some sweet damsel's memory forever. Just think of it! How could mortal man make a better investment? Go then, to our friend, Ezekiel, sign Big Watch, and procure what you want Read his advertisement, though, first.
